Flurry of Shows Over—For Now:

Thank you everyone for stepping up with your art to populate the six juried shows we have put up in the last three months. Every year our shows seem to get bunched up, but 2014 was particularly so. The more important thing however, is that we but up some pretty darn good show! (Visit the gallery section of our website: www.OaklandArt.org and browse through our recent shows.) We can all catch our breath now, as we will only have one more juried show this year, the next Chamber show on Deember 12th.

Don't plan on resting long however, there's a lot of great opportunities to show your art coming up fast!!

First; please consider hanging your work in at least one solo show during the next year (please refer to the schedule on page 2), and contact the respective show chairman to reserve a spot. Of course there will be a full lineup of juried shows again next year as well. The dates are still floating, but as of now we have commitments for shows at the Orinda Library, the Alameda County Law Library, John Muir Hospital, and are waiting to hear about shows at the Alameda Free Library, the Benicia Library and at Boundary Oaks Golf Course. All in addition to the four or five shows we will hang at the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

Watch the next few issues of this newsletter for dates as these shows are nailed down. Hopefully they'll be spread out a little better than they were this year — but be prepared, we'll take them when we can get them!
